

SON OF LIGHT [Lyrics]

[Recording Arrangement] by Magen Thurman and Tony Alany

INTRO:

Verse 1:

Silence, then a baby cries (and)
Suddenly in the blink of an eye
Oh, the madness of the world out there

Well nothing compares
To the radiance of this Holy Child

Chorus 1:

Son of light, Son so bright, You shine so beautiful tonight
We've been waiting for You
The more you live and as you love,
Son of Light, You're saving us
As You, make every prophecy come true

Verse 2:

He's running just as fast as He can (and)
She smiles, 'cause she understands
How this fits in the Father's will
But there's nothing left to do, but rustle his hair and say
"You're a good boy, You bring so much life"

Chorus 2:

Son of light, Son so bright, You shine so beautiful tonight
We've been waiting for You
The more you live and as you love,
Son of Light, You're saving us
As You, make every prophecy come true
